

STAR WARS VS. STAR TREK WHICH ONE RULES?

SPECIAL REPORT

Why Hollywood Can't Find The Next

JULIA ROBERTS

ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY

The Must List

Hot gadgets, cool thrills, and 8 other things we love this week

1 SUMMERLAND The WB's warm-weather hit sexes up its sweet-family-drama core with just enough teen angst and beach-bared bods to keep us hooked.

2 I LOVE MY SMITH & WESSON, by David Bowker A great and delightfully gruesome thriller that has a killing machine called Xowhead as its antihero.

3 NO SAID DATE. Maata Killa Eleven years after the release of the first Wu Yang Chen album, the last of the nine original members puts out a solo album—and it's worth the wait.

4 HAROLD & KUMAR GO TO WHITE CASTLE A raucy romcom, a charcuterie, and Neil Patrick Harris taking the car upholstery. What's not to like?

5 DR. 90210 E!'s reality-show take on Nip/Tuck offers a fascinating look at the perfection-obsessed lives of the doctors who happen to perform extreme makeovers every day.

6 THE NEW IPOD The ML loved its trusty old iPod more than was really healthy, but Apple's done it again: The new

7 Soundtrack to 'GARDEN STATE' Coldplay, the Shins, and Stress & Gerbil remind us of how much we loved Zach Braff's sweet gem of a film.

8 HELLBOY Before his smart and clever adaptations—now on DVD—of Mike Mignola's smart and clever graphic novels, Guillermo del Toro directed...

9 THE DEVIL'S BACKBONE Not during the Spanish civil war, del Toro's spooky and atmospheric (and originally overlooked) drama has just been released on a new extra-packed DVD.

