Hitting rock bottom

A WOMAN sent a picture of her buttocks to Cosmetic Surgery Live. Was she after advice or just reviewing the show?

Never has the expression "bunch of a*se" seemed more apt. Who wants to see a fat bird have her belly cut open and the skin rolled back to reveal her bulging blubber? It was stomach-churning. Literally.

Presenter Vanessa Feltz appeared to have had fixed grin surgery. While her gurning side-kick Dr Jan Adams must surely have wandered in from a Chris Morris send-up. The real star was Robert Rey, the Beverly Hills hunk known as Dr 90210, who pioneered breast enlargement through the navel. Lord knows what other routes he tried first.
